Association Mission Strategist Thoughts

Just a few updates from the Savannah Baptist Association. Things are going very well. Ministry at the Savannah Baptist Center is picking up, ministering more and more to the community. Our Savannah Baptist Assembly is coming along. Our pool is completely redone and looking great. Both of our Disaster Relief Units were used in the last few months and are ready if needed. The BCM is winding down for the summer. Bro Marty Youngblood, our BCM Director, will be going back to the Pastor Wellness Ministry of the Georgia Baptist Mission Board. Please continue to pray about becoming involved with the different Ministries of the Savannah Baptist Association. One of the best ways of helping is to continue to pray for God's will to be accomplished in our Association. Another way is to volunteer. We have plenty of opportunities for you to serve. As we celebrate the 4th of July, Independence Day, remember that the cost of our freedom was not cheap. Many sacrificed much for our Freedom. Also remember that our Freedom we have through Jesus Christ was not cheap. He gave the supreme sacrifice of himself so that humanity might be saved from their sins.

Marty's Minutes

Dear SBA Family,

Thank you for your continued PRAYERS and financial support of your BCM ministries. The last month has been a month of great transition for me and my role with the Georgia Baptist Mission Board. I have been reassigned back to Pastor Wellness ministries, giving leadership across the state in "Conflict Management and Ministry support." The good news is my family and I get to continue living in Savannah and will continue to supervise BCM ministries in Brunswick and Savannah. Our weekly BCM ministries on the GSU@Armstrong campus will be led by local volunteers during this transitional period. We need volunteers to help assist Daphne Youngblood with our weekly Wednesday lunch meetings. (If you're interested and available, please contact me at 678-925-7677). Finally, please continue to pray for Daphne and our student BCM leadership team of, Lindsay, Danny, Sara Kate and Jason as we continue to, "Trust in The Lord" (Proverbs 3:5-6) as we begin preparing for fall semester later in July.

Blessings,
Marty Youngblood

Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

Assembly News

Greetings from the Assembly. With the Summer heat comes busy schedules and the never-ending mowing of the grass. There is nothing better than seeing the kids we host enjoying summer camp. Some will learn about our Lord and Savior for the first time, while others will build their faith, and others will become leaders. How exciting! Please join me in praying for all these wonderful kids and leaders and that the Spirit would continue to move. If you have not yet booked with us, no worries. There is still time and space. Please give me a call and let's talk.

The Baptist Vision

We are on Facebook!

You can visit us at Savannah Baptist Association. If you cannot find us, email connie@sbassociation.org with your Facebook name: @SavAssociation. We will give you a "friend invite". You can also send us pictures and announcements from your church and we will try to put them on our Facebook page. We would love to see pictures of VBS, musicals, ordinations, etc.
